

10 Buckinbah Place Caringbah NSW

4 3 2

Enviably immersed in the tranquillity of a serene backdrop and natural surrounds, this split-level home is reminiscent of a treehouse retreat. Abundant windows allow natural light to flood the home which caters for an array of family dynamics by offering a flexible layout, multiple living areas, wrap around outdoor entertaining deck and private picturesque gardens.

Situated in a sought-after cul-de-sac with natural reserve and access to the Port Hacking River, this charming home also provides easy access to local village centres, schools, sports fields, transport, and amenities.
